BIOGRAPHIE

Angelo Marques est un directeur de la photographie basé à Paris. Originaire du Mans, Angelo se découvre très tôt une passion pour l'image en prenant en photo et filmant régulièrement ses ami.e.s au skate park.

À 19 ans, après un bac pro photographie, il décide de s'installer à Paris, où il travaille pendant quelque temps comme assistant de photographe. En parallèle, Angelo travaille sur des petits projets vidéos avec des réalisateurs rencontrés durant cette période, tels que Enrico Giordano, développant chaque jour un peu plus ses compétences techniques. Ces projets prenant de l'ampleur, il décide rapidement de se professionnaliser entièrement dans la vidéo.

Angelo Marques navigue depuis dans ce métier en collaborant sur des projets de clips avec différents artistes tels que Squidji, Gazo, Olazermi ou encore JazzyBazz.

Il travaille également sur des projets de publicités avec des marques telles que Adidas, Dior, Porsche ou encore Salomon.

Angelo tire parti de la variété d'opportunités qu'offre cette profession, ainsi que de l'esprit d'équipe souvent convivial voire familial omniprésent sur les tournages. Il puise en partie son inspiration créative dans ces rencontres, avec toujours la volonté de mettre à profit sa sensibilité artistique, en adéquation avec les intentions du réalisateur.

BIOGRAPHY

Angelo Marques is a director of photography based in Paris. Born in Le Mans, Angelo discovered early a passion for the image by regularly taking photos and filming his friends at the skatepark.

At 19 years old, after a baccalaureate in photography, he decided to move to Paris and then worked for some time as an assistant photographer. Alongside, Angelo started working on small video projects with directors he met during this period, such as Enrico Giordano, thus developing his techniques skills each day a little more. As these projects grew, he rapidly decided to professionalize himself entirely in the video.

Since then, Angelo Marques has navigated through this profession by collaborating on music video projects with different artists such as Squidji, Gazo, Olazermi or Jazzy-Bazz.

He also works on commercials projects with brands such as Adidas, Dior, Porsche or Salomon.

Angelo takes advantage of the variety of opportunities this profession offers him, as well as the team spirit often friendly, even familial, omnipresent on filming sets. He draws his creative inspirations from his encounters, always with the will to make use of his artistic sensibility, in line with the director's intentions.
