BIOGRAPHY

Born in 1987 in Amsterdam, Tibor discovered early the art of photography. At 16, he developed a much deeper interest for moving images by practicing it with his camera. He was in total admiration of this idea that he could create, and tell a story with the images he made using that device. This fascination for this art led him to look even further into it, and through the works of Hoyte van Hoytema, Christopher Doyle, Darius Khondji or Luca bigazzi, he discovered the profession of cinematographer.

With this in mind, Tibor graduated at the Netherlands Film Academy in 2010 with the short movie MO by Eché Janga, shot with a 35 mm, and it got nominated for best short movie at the Brussels International Independent Film Festival. After several shorts films, 2014 marked the beginning of his collaboration in feature films, with Helium by Eché Janga, for which he earned the Golden Calf of Best Cinematographer, or Copyrette by Marc De Leeuw, for which he was awarded Best Cinematographer at the Mr Zee Award 2017, and Good Favour by Rebecca Daly, which won the Audience Award at the Brussels International Film Festival 2019.

Member of the Netherlands Society of Cinematographers, Tibor now navigates with talent and sensitivity through every aspect of this profession, collaborating with directors like Sacha Polak, with whom he collaborated several times on projects such as the series Hanna for Amazon prime or the Silver Haze feature, selected for the Berlinale cinema festival.

Tibor Dingelstad also works on commercials with brands like Adidas, Samsung, Nike, BMW, Hyundai, Mercedes, T-mobile, Splash and Farfetch, with directors such as Amirah Tajdin, or Paul Geusebroek.

From the beginning of his career, Tibor has met people that inspired him. Every encounter, every shooting gives him new opportunities to learn new ways of creating. He is driven by the will to shoot. His passion for the image is served by the sensitivity and the attention he puts in every collaboration.

BIOGRAPHIE

Né à Amsterdam en 1987, Tibor découvre jeune l'art de la photographie. Vers 16 ans, il découvre un amour plus approfondi pour l'image en mouvement en pratiquant avec sa caméra. Il était en admiration devant l'idée de créer, et de raconter une histoire avec ces images qu'il créait. Cette fascination pour cet art le mena à chercher plus loin, et à travers les travaux de Hoyte van Hoytema, Christopher Doyle, Darius Khondji ou encore Luca bigazzi, il découvrit ce métier de directeur de la photographie.

Tibor sort diplômé de la Netherlands Film Academy en 2010 avec le court métrage MO de Eché Janga, filmé au 35 mm, nominé pour le prix du meilleur court métrage du Brussels International Independent Film Festival. C'est en 2014 que Tibor travaille sur son premier feature: Helium de Eché Janga, qui lui vaut de se faire remarquer en remportant le prix du Golden Calf de Best Cinematographer. Il gagne également le prix du Best Cinematographer au Mr Zee Award 2017 pour Copyrette de Marc De Leeuw, et travaille sur des features tel que Good Favour de Rebecca Daly, qui remporte le prix de l'Audience Award au Brussels International Film Festival 2019. Par la suite, il travaillera à plusieurs reprises avec des réalisatrices tels que Amirah Tajdin sur les publicités Farfetch et Splash, ou encore Sacha Polack sur ses derniers projets en date avec le film Silver Haze, sélectionné au festival du cinéma Berlinale, ou encore la série The Dolls Factory.

Membre de la Netherlands Society of Cinematographer, Tibor navigue maintenant avec talent et inventivité à travers tous les domaines. De la publicité, en travaillant avec des marques telles que Adidas, Samsung, Nike, BMW, Hyundai,Mercedes ou encore T-mobile, en passant par les courts métrages, ainsi que les clips et les features.

Depuis le début de sa carrière, Tibor n'a cessé de rencontrer des personnes qui continuent de l'inspirer au quotidien. Chaque nouvelle rencontre, chaque nouveau tournage est une opportunité pour lui de découvrir de nouvelles manières de créer, de travailler, et de persévérer. La passion qu'il porte à cet art visuel se démontre par sa sensibilité et créativité qu'il met dans chaque projet qu'il aborde. Pour Tibor, tourner, filmer, et découvrir un peu plus chaque jour ce métier de l'image qu'il a choisi n'a pas de prix.
